PROCREDINGS OF THE REPUBLICAN

Last Wednesday evening week, beheld the first party of the season, which was given to the young people of the Red Ribbon Club and others. The The Convention was called to order by C. a very successful wheat raiser, but had not planted any in this State, until last fall. Finally concluding that he would try a wheat crop, he went at it in the horough manner he had used in Ohio, summer fa lowing the land, etc. He then planted forty-sever and one fourth acres in May, reed straw, grub and lowsen wheat, using a Sucker State drill, and sow ing about a bushel and a quarter to the acre. Mr. Mr. Heater and his son Willis, by themselves, cut the entire amount in four days, using the new Buck-eye self-binder, which won golden opinions by its work. Geren and Snyder threshed it in eighteen hours, with their steam thresher, making five set tings of the mackine, getting a little over four cent per bushel. To the astonishment of all, they found there were two thousand one hundred and thirty makes an average of forty-five bushels and five pounds to the acre. Some persons were incredulou as to such a yield, so Mr. H. had the land measured and there was found to be the number of acres w have stated. There were some twenty acres of grul wheat, which, if it could have been kept separate, Mr. H. thinks would have averaged fifty bushels to the scre. These figures are all correct, and can be verified by responsible men. If all our farmers were equally successful as Mr. Heater, Kansas would be ness of premiums, we do not know; but the fact re-mains, that there might have been a much better dis-cause of several disagreeable episodes. The grounds fairly swarmed with gamblers and gambling devices, and many a poor fellow left the Fair several dollars poorer than when he came. It is no answer to say that if people are so ignorant as to invest, they ought to be fleeced. Those who lose, are often those who can least afford to part with their money, and it is a duty the Fair Association owe to the people of the County, to protect them, by refusing all gambling Leona is still on the rise, The sound of the hammer is heard early and late. Everybody has the building fever. Nearly all are building or talking of doing so. The town has gone perfectly crazy on the subject.

Our new school house, one of the handsomest public school buildings in the County, is nearly completed. It certainly is a great improvement to our little village, and speaks well for the people of Leona, that they will do so much for the cause of educatio The City Hotel is looming up, but it will take some time and labor before it is finished. It is needed very much, and we think it will be well supported, as it is to be carried on in good style, something on the European plan; and right beside it is a neat little drug store, which is being creeted by Dr. My-ers. Besides these, several fine dweiling houses are going up.

Mr. John Myers and brother are carrying on a large trade. Mr. John Myers has gone East, soon to return with his family. The junior partner, Dr. Myers, of Highland, ably assisted by Mr. Highstur, (is that lled right!) is carrying on the b absence. Onroid stand by, Levi Rickenbach, is doing a good trade. His store is a model of neatness and order. He is respected by all who know him, as a man of strict integrity, and one of intelligence. Last week, the free train from Grand Island, loaded with people, passed through our town, bound for St. Joe; and from the merry laughter and smiling faces, we judged they were having a splendid time. There was quite a rush from Leona to the St. Joe been visiting friends in Leona. Her friends were glad to see her, and sorry that she could not make them a longer visit. Miss Lucy is quite a favorite with all who know her.

Eo. CHIEF:— The temperance question still rageth.

Our rising young attorney, Chas. T. Clark, edified the citizens of Severance, on Sunday evening last, with as fine a discourse on the subject of temperance as it has ever been my good pleasure to sit and listen Mr. Clark, unlike the most of the temperance disciples, indulged in no broad and incomprehensible assertions, but confined himself to facts and figures; and while he denounced the sale of intoxicating to not enter into personalities. The people of Sever-ance are begining to appreciate Mr. Clark, on account of his many manly traits and scholarly attainments. Mr. Clark's first temperance lecture, like his first effort before the District Court, was a success: he gained his case in the former, and cleared his man in the latter, and won the esteem and confidence of ais fellow citizens. puff. I will stop, by making the prediction that Mr. Clark has a brilliant career in store for bim, both as an orator and a sound legal advisor.
